New test area access procedures in effect Monday

New access control procedures go into effect Monday for the east and west test areas at the Marshall Center. The number of personnel with magnetic keycard access has been reduced. All personnel who do not have keycard access must register at the security checkpoint on Dodd Road at Saturn Road. Any work to be performed after-hours -- 4:30 p.m.-7 a.m. on weekdays and all day on weekends -- by personnel without keycard access must be pre-approved. Pre-approval access requests can be made at <http://co.msfc.nasa.gov/ad50/> or call 544-1188 or 544-1455 for more information.

First-time launch viewers program open

Marshall's Protocol Office has opened the First-time Shuttle Launch Viewers Program for the STS-113 launch in November. The program allows 54 civil servants and their guests to request an opportunity to see a Space Shuttle launch. Those selected will be responsible for making, and paying for, their own travel and lodging expenses. Administrative leave for up to three days will be granted. A computer will randomly select those to attend from participants who sign up at the Web site. To sign up, visit <http://ntf-2.msfc.nasa.gov/ftlvf.nsf/main>
